CMCL & IPRIA ECR Workshop

Privacy, Politics and Law: in Conversation with Professor Paul De Hert Vrije Universiteit Brussels

Melbourne Law School
185 Pelham St. Carlton, 3053, Boardroom lvl 10
Monday 2 October

09:45 – 11:00am | Session 1
Adam Lodders (Melbourne Law School)
Internet of Things (IoT)
Anjalee de Silva (Melbourne Law School)
Sticks, stones, and sex: Addressing the gender gap in Australian anti–vilification

11:00 – 11:15pm | Morning tea

11:15 – 12:30pm | Session 2
Georgina Dimopoulos (Melbourne Law School)
Developing an identity theory of privacy in family law proceedings
Rachel Hews (QUT)
Social media and juries: Using network mapping to understand how prejudicial conversations about criminal trials flow in social networks

12:30 – 1:15pm | Lunch

1:15 – 2:30pm | Session 3
Susan Peukert (University of Adelaide)
Excerpts from her thesis- developing a new model for the involuntary treatment of individuals with mental illness in light of the requirements of Article 12 of the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities.
Marcin Betkier (Victoria University of Wellington)
Moving beyond consent in data privacy law

2:30 – 2:45pm | Afternoon tea

2:45 – 4:00pm | Session 4
Kinfe MY Desta (Melbourne Law School)
The UN Data Privacy Framework and the Cold War Effect
Michael Douglas (Sydney Law School)
Characterisation Of Breach Of Confidence