

On Wednesday the 27th of June 2018 of the workshop

Strategy of Sustainable Development of China: Environmental Aspects

Under the framework of 2018 Confucius Institute activities is being held on the VUB campus. This time the focus lies on the communication in environmental pollutions in China.

As we all know China as the rapid economically developing country, it encounters severe environmental problems. This workshop invites several environmental specialists from China, UK and Belgium to discuss and communicate with the public about diverse environmental pollutants in various systems, and the strategy dealing with these problems.

Workshop timetable:

1. 9:30-10:00 Welcome talk (Prof. Philippe Claeys/Prof. Marc Elskens and Prof. Xinning Song)
2. 10:00-10:30 Metals and nutrients pollution in Chinese soils - problems and solutions (Prof. Hao Zhang, Lancaster University, UK)
3. 10:30-10:45 Coffee break
4. 10:45-11:15 Water Pollution in China: Status and management strategy (Prof. Yue Gao)
5. 11:15-11:45 China's Antimony Pollution Problem and latest Environmental Policies (Prof. Mengchang He, Beijing Normal University, China)
6. 11:45-13:00 lunch pause
7. 13:00-13:30 Organic contaminants in the Chinese environment (Prof. Kevin Jones, Lancaster University, UK)
8. 13:30-14:00 Air pollution in Beijing: Problems and Improvement Strategies (Dr. Wei Guo, Southern University of Science and Technology, China)
9. 14:00-14:15 coffee break
10. 14:15-14:45 Bioanalytical tools for environmental pollutants: in urban areas (Prof. Marc Elskens)
11. 14:45-15:15 Advance instruments for analysis of environmental pollutants (Prof. Fu Ding, Shenyang University of Chemical Technology, China)
12. closure the workshop (Prof. Yue Gao/Prof. Marc Elskens)

The workshop will take place in U-Residence. In the launch pause, free sandwiches and drinks are offered, in order to save the food and seat, please send email to Prof. Yue Gao to confirm your presence: yue.gao@vub.be

Organizers: Prof. Yue Gao, Prof. Marc Elskens, Prof. Philippe Claeys (AMGC, VUB)

Prof. Xinning Song (Confucius Institute at VUB)