Title: The Mediating Effect of Perceived Injustice and Pain Catastrophizing in the Relationship of Pain on Fatigue and Sleep in Breast Cancer Survivors: A Cross-Sectional Study

Standard Licence

You hereby grant to Oxford University Press an exclusive licence for the full period of copyright throughout the world:

- to publish the final version of the Article in the above Journal, and to distribute it and/or to communicate it to the public, either within the Journal, on its own, or with other related material throughout the world, in printed, electronic or any other format or medium whether now known or hereafter devised;
- to make translations and abstracts of the Article and to distribute them to the public;
- to authorize or grant licences to third parties to do any of the above;
- to deposit copies of the Article in online archives maintained by OUP or by third parties authorized by OUP

You authorize us to act on your behalf to defend the copyright in the Article if anyone should infringe it and to register the copyright of the Article in the US and other countries, if necessary. In the case of a multi authored article, you confirm that you are authorized by your co-authors to enter the licence on their behalf.

You confirm to OUP that the Article:

- is your original work;
- has not previously been published (in print or electronic format), is not currently under consideration by another journal, or if it has already been submitted to other journal, it will be immediately withdrawn;
- will not be submitted for publication to any other journal following acceptance in the above Journal; and
- will be first published by OUP

You warrant to OUP that:

- no part of the Article is copied from any other work,
- you have obtained ALL the permissions required (for print and electronic use) for any material you have used from other copyrighted publications in the Article; and
- you have exercised reasonable care to ensure that the Article is accurate and does not contain anything which is libellous, or obscene, or infringes on anyone's copyright, right of privacy, or other rights

RETAINED RIGHTS

Abstract and Citation information - Authors may reuse the Abstract and Citation information (e.g. Title, Author name, Publication dates) of their article anywhere at any time including social media such as Facebook, blogs and Twitter, providing that where possible a link is included back to the article on the OUP site. Preferably the link should be, or include, the Digital Object Identifier (DOI) which can be found in the Citation information about your article online.

Author's Original Version - Authors may reuse the Author's Original Version (AOV) anywhere at any time, providing that once the article is accepted they provide a statement of acknowledgement, and that once the article has been published this acknowledgement is updated to provide details such as the volume and issue number, the DOI, and a link to the published article on the journal's website

Accepted Manuscript - On first online publication authors may immediately upload their Accepted Manuscript (AM) to their own personal webpage, or their institutional repository on the proviso that it is not made publically available until 12 months after the online date of publication. After the embargo period, authors may make their AM publicly available through their institutional repository or other non-commercial repositories PROVIDED THAT (1) you include a link (URL) to the VERSION OF RECORD on the journal's website; and (2) the Journal is attributed as the original place of publication with the correct citation details given. AM may not be uploaded to commercial websites or repositories, unless the website or repository has signed a licensing agreement with OUP.

Version of Record - The Version of Record (VOR) as it appears in the journal following copyediting and proof correction may not be deposited by authors in institutional repositories or posted to third party websites unless the repository or website has signed an agreement with OUP allowing posting.

Free link to published article - On publication, authors will be sent an online offprint link allowing access to their article on the OUP website without subscription. This link may be shared directly with interested colleagues, but is not intended for mass distribution through, repositories, or social media. If you wish to share links or publicize your article we would ask that you instead distribute a link to the abstract of the article.Â

Funding bodiesÂ - Please be aware that you are responsible for all funding agency compliance and the accuracy of information you provide in relation to your article. OUP and/or the controlling Learned Society shall not be responsible for checking that funding agency requirements have been complied with.Â

Educational useÂ - You may use the Article within your employerâs institution or company for educational or research purposes only, including use in course-packs, as long as: (1) you do not use it for commercial purposes or re-distribution outside of the institution/company; (2) you acknowledge the Journal as the original place of publication with the correct citation details given.Â

Further informationÂ - details of OUPâs publication rights policies, including author rights can be found atÂ https://academic.oup.com/journals/pages/access_purchase/rights_and_permissions/publication_rights
